

In Pictures: Sheikh Zayed Mosque in Fujairah

The mosque can house approximately 28,000 worshippers

---

Published: April 19, 2021 17:43

Compiled by Devadasan K P, Picture Editor

---

1 of 9

The Sheikh Zayed Mosque in Fujairah, also known as the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, is the main mosque in the Emirate of Fujairah, and the second largest in the United Arab Emirates after the mosque with the same name in Abu Dhabi.

Image Credit: Ahmed Ramzan/Gulf News

2 of 9

Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque in Fujairah illuminated at night. The mosque opened in 2015, and Fujairah's ruler, Sheikh Hamad bin Mohammed Al Sharqi, led the first Eid prayers.

Image Credit: Shutterstock

3 of 9

Sheikh Zayed Mosque in Fujairah, is similar to the Blue Mosque in Istanbul and has 65 domes and six minarets.

Image Credit: AFP

The courtyard of the mosque, with fountains and gardens, can hold 14,000 people.

Image Credit: AFP

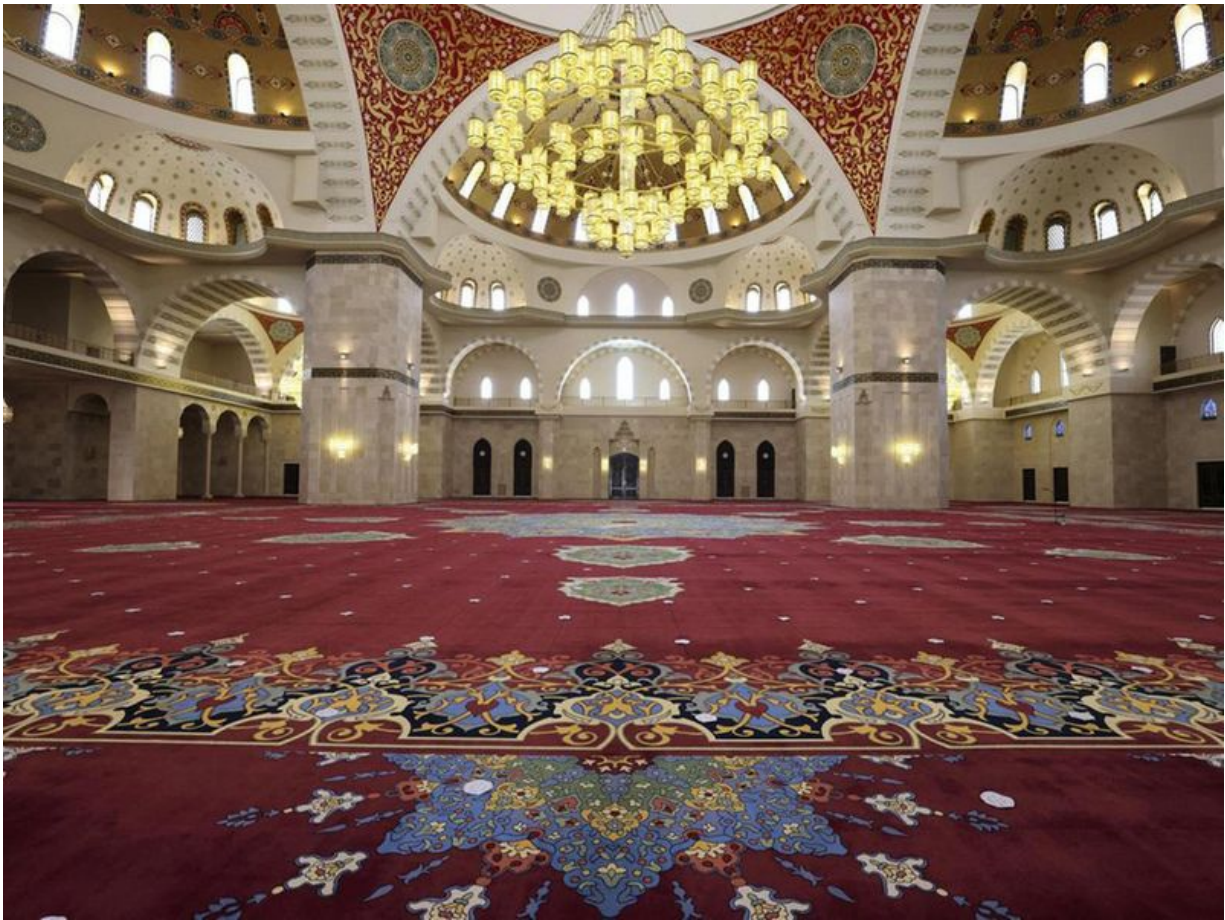

The interior of Sheikh Zayed Mosque in Fujairah. The entire mosque features beautiful chandeliers imported from Egypt.
Image Credit: AFP

The building project started in 2010 and was funded by the President, Sheikh Khalifa. The work was carried out by the Ministry of Public Works and supervised by Fujairah Municipality.

Image Credit: AFP

The carpet in the main prayer hall resembles a garden filled with many flowers.

Image Credit: AFP

8 of 9

Visitors at the Sheikh Zayed Mosque in Fujairah.

Image Credit: AFP

The design embodies Arabic and Ottoman architecture, along with modern design elements.

Image Credit: AFP